

LGBTIQ+ Inclusive Practices in Health

About this session

Our LGBTIQ+ Inclusive Practices in Health training will guide participants through a range of interactive learning activities focusing on health issues facing LGBTIQ+ individuals and the ways inclusive health practices can make a difference.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of this session participants will be able to:

- Describe key health outcomes for LGBTIQ+ individuals
- Describe potential issues of stigma, discrimination and inappropriate service delivery in health faced by LGBTIQ+ people
- Adhere to appropriate legislative requirements in relation to LGBTIQ+ inclusion
- Use appropriate language and terminology in relation to LGBTIQ+ inclusion
- Embed LGBTIQ+ inclusive practices into everyday behaviours and organisational practices

Content*

- Unpacking gender, sex and sexuality identifies – definitions and terminology
- Experiences of stigma, discrimination and inappropriate service delivery in health and their impacts
- LGBTIQ+ inclusive language
- Key strategies for being inclusive

*NOTE: some content delivered via pre and post learning materials and activities

Our facilitators

Our trainers build safe, interactive and reflective spaces for participants. Working It Out staff are qualified educators with expertise in adult learning and working with LGBTIQ+ community members.

Session length and availability

3:00 hours

Available statewide

Customization

Working It Out has professional learning modules designed specifically for the following areas:

- Aged Care
- Disability
- Sport
- Leadership
- Schools
- Transgender for Workplaces

In addition, we are happy to customize our training to meet specific requirements. Contact us below for more information.

Cost per session (up to 25 participants)

Standard: $720

Not-for-profit Discount: $540

Travel & accommodation charges may apply.

For more information or to make a booking:

Call 02 6231 1200 or email training@workingitout.org.au