

Language Matters

About this session

Language can be used to include or exclude. This short session will unpack key concepts around how identity and language and how language can be used to support inclusion for people of diverse gender, sex or sexuality.

This course is suitable to anyone.

Learning Outcomes

At the end of this session participants will be able to:

- Describe key terms that relate to sexual and gender diversity
- Describe the connection between language and inclusion
- Use language appropriately to support LGBTIQ+ inclusion

Content

- Unpacking gender, sex and sexuality identifies – definitions and terminology
- Pronouns and misgendering
- Everyday experiences of stigma, discrimination and isolation and their impacts through language and action

About our facilitators

Working It Out trainers are qualified educators with expertise in adult learning. They create safe, interactive and reflective spaces for participants using their experience and expertise from being part of, and working extensively with, the LGBTIQ+ community.

Session length

2 hours

Cost per session (for up to 25 participants)

Standard: $480
Not-for-profit $360

Or $60 pp ($40 concession) for individual enrolment in public courses

For more information or to make a booking

Call 02 6231 1200 or email training@workingitout.org.au